Reading

1 Read the text. Write true (T) or false (F).

Hobbies are important for young people. You can express your individuality and creativity through them. Some hobbies need balance and coordination, such as bike riding and skiing. Others need imagination, like painting and drawing.

Hobbies can be expensive or cheap. For example, skiing can be expensive, but drawing and chess are cheap. You need a lot of energy for some hobbies, like dancing or rollerblading. But you don't need a lot of energy for others, for example, using a computer or cooking.

It doesn't matter what your hobby is. It can be a sport or another activity. It is only important that you are interested in it. You don't need to be good at it, but you need to be dedicated and motivated.

- 1 Hobbies aren't important for young people. F
- 2 You can't have creative hobbies.
- 3 All hobbies are cheap.
- 4 You don't need a lot of energy for cooking or using a computer.

Reading

1 Read the text and answer the questions.

So you know about Hollywood, but do you know about Bollywood?

Hollywood is world-famous as the capital of cinema. But there is a place that makes more films than Hollywood: it is the film industry in Mumbai, India, called Bollywood. This film industry is immense because the cinema is very, very popular in India. The majority of the films are romances, and many are also musicals.

In India, they always show a documentary before the film. The documentary is about ten minutes long. It is usually about a historical event in India or an important person in Indian society. Sometimes there are two or three documentaries before the film.

1 Where is Bollywood?

It's in Mumbai, India.

2 Are films from Bollywood popular?

3 What type of films do they make in Bollywood?

4 What do you see before the film in India?

5 How long are the documentaries?

Reading

1 Read the text. Answer the questions.

Schools today and yesterday

Schools today are different from many years ago. A long time ago, there were many students of different ages in one class, but now all the students in a class are the same age. Before, the teacher was the centre of attention, and there were many exercises to copy. Today the teacher has sometimes got an assistant teacher for help. Students do many projects and work together. Sometimes students use computers to study.

A long time ago, there were only subjects such as Maths, English and Science. Now there are subjects such as I.T. and P.E.

Rules are always important. For example, you mustn't be rude to your classmates or talk in class. You must also do your homework, study hard and put your hand up to ask a question.

1 Are schools the same today as in the past?

No, schools today are very different.
