When they arrived they took a taxi to the hotel. "I think we should have lunch," said John's mum. But John was more excited about going to the beach. He went to his room to get some things from his rucksack, but when he opened it he had a terrible surprise - there was no beach ball, no kite, no striped shorts. Not even his superhero toothbrush. What he found was a doll, a red spotted dress and a tennis racket! John hated tennis! "Mum, Dad, I've got the wrong rucksack. Look everything's different. Where's my superhero toothbrush?"

His mum and dad looked at the rucksack. "You picked up the wrong one at the airport," said his dad. His mum found an address and a mobile telephone number on the rucksack. She rang the number and spoke to a man who said his daughter, Sarah, had the wrong rucksack too. It was very strange because they were staying at the same hotel!

The two families met at the front of the hotel. The children laughed and gave each other their rucksack. The two of them spent the holiday playing together!
